

KALEIDOSCOPE SPEAKERS 1ST TERM 2019

- Monday, 4th MARCH 9.45am MALCOLM MCKINNON, Assoc. Prof. School of History, Philosophy, Political Science & International Relations, VUW
'Trump and American Foreign Policy'
- 10.50am DAWN SANDERS, Founder & CEO Shakespeare's Globe Centre, NZ
'Hanging about Shakespeare'
- Monday, 11th MARCH 9.45am JO RANDERSON, Artistic Director, Barbarian Productions
'Can Art Change the World? : How new Arts build communities and bring generations together.'
- 10.50am CHRIS WHELAN, Executive Director of Universities NZ.
'The Value of a University Education.'
- Monday, 18th MARCH 9.45am KATE HUNTER, Assoc. Prof. History, Political Science and International Relations, VUW
'People left behind in NZ WW1, particularly women'
Her book 'Holding onto Home' will be on sale.
- 10.50am Prof. MARTIN McGUINNESS, Applied Mathematics, VUW.
'How maths can help you understand many things, e.g. steaming volcanic bombs and frozen Southern seas, etc.'
- Monday, 25th MARCH 9.45am Dr. DAVID HUNT, M.D. Ph.D. FRCPC
'The Sandman' or 'What do Anaesthetists actually do?'
- 10.50am LESLEY E. HUNT
'Glyndebourne Gardens - an Operatic Love Affair'
- Monday, 1st April 9.45am MARY & ANDREW McEWEN
'Mongolia'
- 10.50am SALLY JANE NORMAN
'The Arts as a Catalyst for inter-disciplinary Innovation'
- Monday, 8th April 9.45am BRIGADIER ROGER MORTLOCK
'Bouganville – then and now'
- 10.50am KEVIN MACKAY, Marine Geologist, NIWA
'Mapping the Marlborough Sounds'
- 10.50am TBA