

U3A SPEAKERS 3rd SESSION KALEIDOSCOPE 2017

- Monday, 4th September 9.45am MATU BOOTH, Manager Nga Manu Nature Reserve
'A brief history of Nga Manu – where to from here?'
- 10.50am TRISH MCKELVEY, former NZ Cricket Administrator and Educator, awarded MBE,
'Test results: from cricket to teaching – it's all about the way you play the game'
- Monday, 11th September 9.45am DR. PETER HATFIELD, Retired Physician and present President Wellington U3A
'Modern medical history through the eyes of the kidney'
- 10.50am DON MATHIESON
'Prince Felix Youssoupoff – Assassin'
- Monday, 18th September 9.45am Prof. LISA MARRIOTT, Assoc. Prof. Taxation, Victoria Univ. School of Accounting & Commercial Law.
'All New Zealanders are equal, but some are more equal than others'
- 10.50am SHARON CROSBIE, Broadcaster
- Monday, 25th September NO MEETING
-
- Monday, 2nd October 9.45am Sgt. DAVID STONE
'Life in the New Zealand Police Force'
- 10.50am KIM WORKMAN, Advocate for restorative justice, co-founder research group 'Re-thinking crime and punishment' and founder of 'Justspeak'.
'Talking about justice that restores'
- Monday, 9th October 9.45am GEOFF GREGORY
'Holman Hunt and the paintings that inspired a generation'
- 10.50am REX KERR, Retired Head Otaki College, Author and Member of Otaki Historical Society
'Early European settlers in Otaki, including whalers and well-known Otaki Maori'
NB. His book 'Not only Te Rauparaha and Hadfield but also.....' will be on sale for $30
- Monday, 16th October 9.45am Rt. Hon JIM BOLGER, ONZ, former New Zealand Prime Minister and Ambassador
- 10.50am MIKE MENDONCA, Wellington Chief Resilience Officer
'Preparing Wellington for the shocks & stresses of the 21st century.'