

KALEIDOSCOPE SPEAKERS Term 1 2022

23 February 2022

28th FEBRUARY

- 9.45am BOB MAYSMOR
'Travels in Bangladesh'
- 10.50am CHRISTIANE MORTELIER
'Gothic Cathedrals in France'

7th MARCH

- 9.45am TODD ZANER, Coast Access Radio
'The Face of Radio'
- 10.50am JANET BAYLY, Director Mahara Gallery
'Frances Hodgkins, the Field Collection and the new MAHARA'

14th MARCH

- 9.45am MURRAY EDRIDGE, City Missioner
'Creating a Community where there is no us or them.'
- 10.50am JOHN SKENE, Aviation History Enthusiast
'Aviation History'

21st MARCH

- 9.45am PAT WEBSTER, inaugural member of the Charities Commission
'Marketisation of Charities'
- 10.50am Dr. ROSANNE LIVINGSTONE, Former Te Papa Collections Mgr. Textiles (History)
'Living the Dream: her Ph.D thesis – Dress & Identity in Kellis, a Roman-Period Village in Egypt.'

28th MARCH

- 9.45am ROGER PALMER, MMus. President Recorders & Early Music Union
'What is our music? NZ's Pakeha sounds'
- 10.50am DAVE LOWE, Adjunct Prof. Atmospheric Chemistry Antarctic Research Centre, VUW
Wellingtonian of the Year Environment 2020
and RHIANNON MACKIE, Student Climate Activist, Hutt Valley High School
NZ's & Pacific Rep. UN's Youth Task Force for Stockholm +50 Environmental Conf.
'The Alarmist – 50 years measuring Climate Change: Growing up in a Greenhouse World'
NB. The Alarmist has been listed in the Top 10 non-fiction category of N.Z's
Ockham Book Awards 2022.

4th APRIL

- 9.45am KEVIN CLARK
'Travels around Turkey, Iran, Turkmenistan & Uzbekistan in a converted London Rubbish Truck'
- 10.50am DEXTER TRAILL, Kaiwhakahaere: Māori Honongā Hapori at Office of the Ombudsman
'The role of the Ombudsman'