

KALEIDOSCOPE SPEAKERS TERM 1, 2023

21 February 2023

MONDAY 27 FEBRUARY

9.45am MARY O'KEEFFE, Archaeologist
Digging up the Past – Life as a NZ Archaeologist

10.50am CHRISTIANE MORTELIER
NZ in Jules Verne's novels translated from French as "A voyage around the World"

MONDAY 6 MARCH

9.45am JAMES RENWICK, Prof. of Physical Geography, VUW
The Latest on Climate Change

10.50am MICHAEL PERYER, Author
Waikanae Estuary Birdlife (NB. Books will be for sale - have cash ready)

MONDAY 13 MARCH

This will be followed by Kapiti U3A AGM

9.45am JANET HOLBOROW, Mayor of Kapiti
Creating a future for Kāpiti

10.50am KIM WORKMAN, KNZM QSO
Youth Offending – Then and Now

MONDAY 20 MARCH

9.45am KATHRYN ENNIS-CARTER, International Consultant in Governance and Public Management
Working with Governments in a range of countries in the field of International Development

10.50am JENNY PATTRICK, Author
Her latest book – "Harbouring"

MONDAY, 27 MARCH

9.45am KATE DE GOLDI, Author and SUSAN PARIS, Editor
The ANNUAL project: a miscellany for young readers to help build literacy and reading for pleasure – an old school solution to a modern problem.

10.50am Revd. LANCE LUKIN, QHC O St.J,JP, Regional Director Oceania & Pacific Region Mission to Seafarers, Wellington Port Chaplain.
How feeding your cat could be killing people: how much is a life really worth?

MONDAY 3 APRIL

9.45am Dr. CORDELIA THOMAS, Assoc. Commissioner, Office of the Health and Disability Commissioner
The role of the Office of the Health & Disability Commissioner & the older consumer

10.50am ELIZABETH KAY
El Alamein – sand, dust and flies: personal stories of WW2 Egypt and North Africa

Term 2 2023 starts on Monday 12 June