

KALEIDOSCOPE SPEAKERS TERM 2, 2023

30 May 2023

Note earlier start time of 9:30am
Please be seated by 9:25am

MONDAY 12 JUNE

- 9.30am Mary O'Keefe, Archaeologist
Digging up the Past – Life as a NZ Archaeologist
- 10.45am Simon Nathan, Geologist, Writer
Around the World in 1926 – a photographic voyage with Jos Divis – a working miner and photographer who left a unique record of life in mining towns where he lived and worked.

MONDAY 19 JUNE

- 9.30am Tricia MacPherson Stetson Productions
50 years in the Entertainment Business
- 10.45am Malcolm MacKinnon, Historian, Political Historian
Modern China

MONDAY 26 JUNE

- 9.30am Kate Clarke, Earthquake Geologist, Paleoseismology Team Leader, GNS Science
Past Large Earthquakes and Tsunamis on the Hikurangi Subduction Zone
- 10.45am Barry Borman, Prof. of Epidemiology, Massey University
Down the rabbit hole: the wonderland of NZ's folic acid saga

MONDAY 3 JULY

- 9.30am Christina Barton, Manutaki Director, Te Pataka Toi Adam Art Gallery, VUW
Artist Rita Angus
- 10.45am Dr. Dexter Bambery, Professional Adviser Dental Council of NZ (Retired)
Dentistry through the Ages.

MONDAY 10 JULY

- 9.30am Colin Miskelly, Te Papa Curator, Ornithologist & Botanical Collector
From farm to forest – the transformation of Mana Island a conservation success story.'
- 10.45am David Howman CNZM
Stories of cheating in World Sport - from Russia to Lance Armstrong

MONDAY 17 JULY

- 9.30am Phil Smith, RNZ National Documentary Producer and Journalist
Pictures of Parliament: stories and views from inside the House
- 10.45am Bob Maysmor, Intrepid Traveller
Kurdistan

3rd Term starts 2 October