Gujarat is a state on the western coast of India. Its coastline of about 2,340 km is the longest in the country. Gujarat is the fifth-largest Indian state by area, and the ninth-most populous state, with a population of 74 million.

Ahmedabad was founded in 1411 by Sultan Ahmed Shah. Captured by Emperor Akbar in 1573, the city became a thriving centre of international trade.

In 1818, the British East India Company took control. Under British rule, the city modernized and became known as the 'Manchester of the East' for its booming cotton and textile industry.

Mahatma Gandhi led a nationwide, nonviolent campaign, including the famous 1930 Salt March (that paralyzed the British administration) from his base at the Sabarmati Ashram in Ahmedabad

In 2017 the old city of Ahmedabad became a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
