

KALEIDOSCOPE SPEAKERS TERM 3, 2023

22 September 2023

MONDAY 2 OCTOBER

- 9.30am Dr. MIKE JOY, Freshwater Ecologist and Science Communicator
Degrowth: respecting Earth's limits and engaging in its' regeneration.'
- 10.45am DAN COUP, CEO QE11 National Trust, Wellington and Wairarapa
Aotearoa's quiet conservationists – 5000 protected places you won't find on a map.'

MONDAY 9 OCTOBER

- 9.30am Dr. ROSIE GIBSON, Snr. Lecturer in the School of Psychology, Massey University
Sleep is a bit of a luxury: prevalence & perceptions of sleep disruptions with ageing
- 10.45am EMMA LEWIS, Executive Director, Nikau Foundation
Awarding grants in the Greater Wellington region.

MONDAY 16 OCTOBER

- 9.30am CHARLOTTE MACDONALD, Prof. of History, VUW
Our NZ History Curriculum – taking the past to the future.
- 10.45am KEVIN CLARK,
The History of Glass Making.

MONDAY 23 OCTOBER. No meeting – Labour Day

MONDAY 30 OCTOBER

- 9.30am Dr. NICK SMITH, Snr. Research Officer, Massey University
Feeding the World: Nutrition comes first.
- 10.45am Emeritus Prof. LIONEL CARTER, Marine Geology, Antarctic Research Centre, VUW
Protecting the oceanic fibre-optic network – the backbone of global communication and the internet.'

MONDAY 6 NOVEMBER

- 9.30am RUSSELL JENKINS
Steel Rails and a wire through the City. The history of Electric Trams in Wellington
- 10.45am ANTHONY DREAVER, Historian
New light on the friendly invasion – the US Marines in NZ.

MONDAY 13 NOVEMBER

- 9.30am HAMISH CAMPBELL, Palaeontologist & Geologist, Emeritus Scientist, GNS Science
The Shape of the Chatham Islands.
- 10.45am KEVIN CLARK, Musician
Talk 'n Play

Term 1 2024 starts on Monday 19 February